

CITY CULTURES

FROM GREENWICH VILLAGE TO ABU DHABI

A talk by HARVEY MOLOTCH, New York University

Harvey Molotch, Professor of Metropolitan Studies and Sociology at New York University, will talk about the two urban models that currently sweep the world: the Greenwich Village model with its face-to-face neighborhood interaction, and - extreme in contrast - the Abu Dhabi model, i.e. cities built through deliberate contrivance. Professor Molotch will explain how both models work and what we can learn from each. Before joining NYU Harvey Molotch was Centennial Professor at the London School of Economics and on faculty at the University of California, Santa Barbara.
